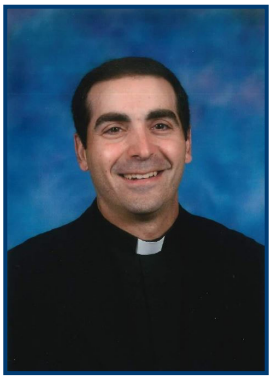
LETTERS FROM A PASTOR TO HIS PEOPLE



Dear Parishioners,

We struggle to rest. It sounds crazy, doesn't it? We think we enjoy relaxing, and we think we desire it, and yet it unsettles us to just be and do nothing. How many of you arrive on your vacation, near a beautiful lake or wherever, and immediately need to get up and do something, go somewhere? Why is that?

I'll speak for myself. I have an urge to constantly work and "do." The source of this impetus is a (false) understanding that I am a work in progress, an unfinished project. Something from a very early age has always been whispering in my ear, "keep working… keep achieving… things still aren't right… you're not good enough." And so I keep going and I keep trying to achieve that elusive goal of perfection. When I am not working, but relaxing, I'm a little uneasy. It is hard for me to trust that I am, actually, just fine; that I don't need to do anything to be good; and that I especially don't need to do anything to earn God the Father's love. The subtle lie whispered to me is that if I'm not doing then I'm bad.

That's why our Lord's invitation to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while" (Mark 6:31) is a beautiful one. We can simply be at rest with God. Jesus looks favorably upon us when we are not doing anything. When we rest with the Lord, we are being rejuvenated, we are exercising trust in God's unconditional love for us, and we are letting God do the work.

That's one of the reasons I love rocking chairs (my next mission, by the way, is to find some outdoor rocking chairs for the porch of the rectory). I can sit back with a book (or rosary or cold beer or cigar or all of the above) in hand, and be with Jesus by my side. You should try it sometime.

We are making progress towards reopening our Perpetual Adoration Chapel. In order to open as soon as possible, we need to have every hour of every day of the week filled with at least two scheduled adorers. Many time slots are still unfilled, so, please, consider signing up. Send an email to Vince Ross (adorationchapel@spc-church.org) with your available days and times to adore. Also let Vince know if you are interested in taking on more of a leadership role in the adoration ministry. Finally, feel free to also spread the word with family members and friends, even ones who are not parishioners at Saint Paul.

We are looking to create a men's spiritual group here at the parish. That Man Is You is a weekly program that combines breakfast, a video lecture, and small group discussion. It focuses on key topics affecting men today — like finding fulfillment in work and retirement, being a good Dad in the age of social media, and loving your wife as your bride. The program has been widely successful in changing men's lives at parishes across the country. The program will begin this fall, but right now, men are needed to help get the program ready to launch. Time commitment is minimal. Please get in touch with Will Gohl — his information is in the bulletin — to learn more.

Again, we are resuming the rectory meals for Tuesday and Saturday nights. The sign up is through TakeThemAMeal. Thank you again in advance for feeding us!

This is a random request, but I am looking for some nice (perhaps even framed) religious artwork for the rectory. If there is anything you are interested in donating to us, please let me know and call the office. And if you have anything that would be good for our recreation room, the man cave, (like an Old Style sign) let me know too! I'm trying to do a little redecorating around the place on the cheap.

I take an annual vacation around this time with my priest-friends with whom I studied in seminary. There are six of us and we have been taking this trip for nine years now, as long as we've been priests. I will be away Monday, July 19 until Monday, July 26. So, if you don't see me around, it's not because I ran away. In fact, I've felt very welcome in these three weeks, and I'm grateful for all of your support thus far. I will be praying for you while I am away.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. James

take them a meal

Calling all cooks or those who simply want to show their support for the priests of St. Paul of the Cross! Please sign up for a dinner so our priests can eat and pray together before their evening obligations. Your generosity is much appreciated!

Tuesday meals should feed 5 men
Saturday meals should feed 7 men

On Tuesdays, please deliver meals to the rectory, already cooked and hot, between 4:45 - 5:00 pm. Ring the bell and someone will let you in. On Saturdays, please deliver meals between 5:45 - 6:00 pm. If you would like your container returned, please mark your name and phone number. We are all carnivores and have no dietary restrictions!

Here's how to sign up online:

1. Go to www.takethemameal.com
2. In the yellow box entitled FIND, above the recipient last name, enter rectory. For the password, enter 4949. Click FIND.
3. Scroll down to the list of all Tuesdays and Saturdays for the next 12 months and find the date(s) you would like to choose. Click on the word TAKE for that date.
4. Enter your name, email address, phone number, and what you will be making for dinner.
5. Click SIGN UP.
6. You will then receive an email with the subject line "Thanks for Signing Up!" which confirms that you are all set up.

Don't have a computer or have quesitons about this project? Email Patricia O'Brien @ patriciaobrien@spc-church.org or call 847-825-7605.

COME LET US ADORE HIM

We are excited that the planning for reopening our Adoration Chapel is well underway. As we prepare to reopen, we will need to begin filling slots to ensure that our Eucharistic Lord is never left alone. If you are interested in signing up for an hour time slot, please email adorationchapel@spc-church.org indicating the time slot you prefer to fill. We will not be able to open up the chapel until all slots are filled. Thank you for your support of this wonderful opportunity at our parish.

USHERS NEEDED

We are very thankful to everyone who offered so generously their time to us during COVID when we were in great need of volunteers. Right now, we are in the process of returning to a new normal. As such, we are in need of ushers for our 4:30 pm Saturday evening Masses as well as our 9:00 am, 10:30 am, and noon Sunday Masses. The goal is to have enough ushers available to start a rotating system so that everyone would only have to "work" once a month. If you are willing to offer your help, please call Madeleine McCoy at 847-825-7605 x2221 or speak with one of the ushers at Mass. Please note that you are interested in ushering, and provide your name, phone number, and an e-mail address as well as your Mass of preference. Training is going to be provided by the captain of each Mass.

Thank you so very much for considering volunteering!

SLOW ME DOWN, LORD

Slow me down, Lord
Ease the pounding of my heart
by the quieting of my mind.

Steady my hurried pace
with a vision of the eternal march of time.
Give me amid the confusion of the day,
the calmness of the eternal hills.

Break the tension of my nerves and muscles
with the soothing music of the singing streams that live in my memory.

Help me to know the magical restoring power of sleep.

Teach me the art of taking minute vacations,
Of slowing down to look at a flower,
to chat with a friend,
to pat a dog,
to read a few lines of a good book.

Slow me down Lord
and inspire me to send my roots
deep into the soil of life's enduring values that I may grow toward the stars of my greater destiny.

WEDDINGS AT ST. PAUL — part 2

I received this note and pictures from a long time parishioner, Phil Chapleau. The pictures show rare views of the interior of the first church. Here is Phil's note that accompanied the pictures:

The marriage of Raymond P. Chapleau and Nancy Dee Nelson

My parents wedding was held at 7 pm in the evening of Saturday, August 6, 1949. The temperature was well into the 90s. Father Smith, who was pastor at the time, performed the ceremony. I guess candles were big at the time.

Special thanks to Phil Chapleau for sharing these pictures with us

KIDS CORNER

THE APOSTLE TO THE APOSTLES

July 22 is the feast of St. Mary Magdalene. In 2016, Pope Francis changed the celebration of the life of this follower of Jesus from a memorial, a time when the Church remembers the life of a person, to a feast, a time when the Church recognizes a person's valuable contribution to the life of faith. Feast days honor saints of particular significance, such as the apostles and the evangelists. Changing Mary Magdalene's memorial to a feast reminds us that she was an important follower and supporter of Jesus. She is also called the Apostle to the Apostles, a title that reminds us that Mary, the first to discover the empty tomb and see the risen Jesus, ran from the place of death to bring the good news to the apostles that Jesus was alive (John 20:1—18).

Many other women followed Jesus and helped spread his message.

Match the names of these women below with their descriptions.

Fill in the blanks with the names of women you know and match the last two descriptions with them.

Mary (Luke 1:26–27, 30–31)

Elizabeth (Luke 1:39–40)

Mary & Martha (Luke 10:38–42)

Samaritan woman at the well (John 4:1–42)

Joanna & Susanna (Luke 8:1–3)

She was Mary's cousin and greeted Mary as "the mother of my Lord" even before Jesus was born.

Jesus asked her for a drink of water. She believed he was the promised Messiah and went to tell her whole town about him.

These two women helped support Jesus' ministry.

She is the mother of Jesus, the Mother of God.

These two sisters, good friends of Jesus, lived with their brother, Lazarus.

"Stuff the Truck" Clothing Drive

Each year around Thanksgiving, St Paul of the Cross has sponsored a clothing drive benefiting our sister parish, St Benedict the African in Chicago. Last year due to Covid, we were unable to fulfill this ministry. This year, the Clothing Drive has been requested to be held during July to accommodate St Benedict's needs for clothing and miscellaneous home goods before the school year begins.

The Clothing Drive is for our "sister" parish, St Benedict the African in Chicago, their parishioners, and the communities they serve. If people are cleaning closets or moving or whatever, their gently used castoffs for men and women and children and infants would certainly be appreciated by the parish at St Benedict's. As in years past gently used toys, small appliances in working condition or other housewares are also welcome. Donations delivered in boxes would be appreciated to help us pack and unpack more efficiently. However, if you do not have them boxed, they are always welcomed in bags or other containers.

* WHEN? Saturday, July 24, 2021, 9AM-6PM, Sunday, July 25, 2021, 8:30AM- 1:30 PM

WHERE? All donations should be dropped off at the Summit Street entrance to the Parish Life Center (by the large truck trailer) Prior to these dates, donations can be accepted by special arrangement.

WHAT? Donations accepted: Clothing of all types, baby clothes, gently used kitchen and household items, jewelry (nothing larger than what one person can carry.) It is preferred that all donations be in boxes for easy loading and stacking.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION CHAPEL

REPEAT PERFORMANCE

Since the Archdiocese removed pandemic restrictions on adoration chapels, St. Paul has started a process to reopen its chapel. A meeting was held on June 26th to solicit volunteers and leaders to participate in this push. The meeting was well received and a few parishioners who did not attend requested that the meeting be repeated. So, the repeat performance will be on July 24th as indicated below.

Eucharistic Adoration has unique characteristics with the objective to promote prayer through Adoration. It is a special kind of prayer that brings adorers into a very intimate relationship with Jesus through a spiritual investment of commitment, time and focused purpose.

As we prepare to open, we will need to begin filling slots to ensure that our Eucharistic Lord is never left alone. If you are interested in signing up for an hour time slot, please email adorationchapel@spc-church.org indicating the time slot you prefer to fill. We will not be able to open up the chapel until all the slots are filled. Thank you for your support of this wonderful opportunity at our parish.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JULY 18, 2021

THE APOSTLES REPORTED ALL THEY HAD DONE AND TAUGHT. JESUS SAID TO THEM,

"Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

MARK 6:30, 31

COMPASSION

If we were to use one word to describe the scriptures for today, it would be "compassion." In Jeremiah, God rails against those who have scattered the sheep, and vows to "gather the remnant" personally. We also hear the prophecy about the coming Messiah. In Ephesians, Christ is breaking down the walls of division between peoples and drawing them to be reconciled with God in peace. In Mark, Jesus calls the tired disciples away to rest and have some "me time," but even then the crowds persisted. Jesus saw their spiritual hunger and neediness and was "moved with pity." All three situations involve looking beyond one's own agenda to see the needs of others and respond. God models how to empathize with others. May we continue to learn to be kinder, gentler, and more caring for each other.

TIME FOR A TEAM MEETING

In last week's Gospel, Jesus sent the apostles out two by two. Today we see him bringing them back together, reporting "all they had done and taught." A lot has happened between then and now and in this time the disciples experienced many things. They would have grown in their ministry and their ability to heal and preach, but they probably also ran into frustrating times and encountered their limitations as human beings. If human nature prevailed, their partners were driving them nuts! So now after all this sharing, Jesus called for some balance in their lives. It was time to come away and rest. Between family and friends and social media, many of us have lost this ability to "be by ourselves" as we have become accustomed to filling every day and every moment with distractions. Perhaps one of the gifts and challenges of "sheltering in place" these last months is that we celebrated moments of joy and hope and peace but were also forced to listen to and name those voices of anger, loneliness, and fear.

WELL-LAID PLANS

It is important to have balance in our lives, and Jesus was indeed was trying to teach this to the Apostles, but when they got to their intended place of repose, they encountered so many people Jesus was filled with compassion. No doubt he went about feeding them spiritually and physically; it would have been important for him to be hospitable. But at some point in time, I'm guessing that he still pulled the apostles aside and told them "Okay, people are settled now, so let's leave all the excitement, delegate the job to somebody else, and find some peace and quiet." None of us is any good at our prayer, our ministries, our lives, unless we take the time to find the quiet and go back to replenish our own wells. There is no way we can give to others unless we do. That is why we return to church each week, to rest and be nourished and renewed. And none of us is so important that we can't take time away to take care of ourselves. So be gentle with yourself and with others this week.

WHO AM I TO JUDGE? WITH DR. EDWARD SRI - SESSION 1: DON'T IMPOSE YOUR MORALITY ON ME!

What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? These are difficult questions to discuss in our culture. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality,Äîthat there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. So, how do we talk about right and wrong in this world? In this series, Dr. Ted Sri explores the fragility of a relativist outlook and the importance of absolute truth.

Say Good-bye to Clogged Gutters!

$99 Down
$99 Per Month
$99 Installation

This promotion assumes an estimated job cost of $7883. The advertised payment of $99 a month is an estimate only, and assumes that third-party financing is available for new customers at an estimated 9.99% annual percentage rate for 132 months. Promotion available to qualified buyers on approved credit with $99 down payment. Not all buyers will qualify. Higher annual percentage rates apply for buyers with lower credit ratings. LeafGuard is neither a broker nor a lender. Financing is provided by third-party lenders unaffiliated with LeafGuard, under terms and conditions arranged directly between the customer and such lender, all of which are subject to credit requirements and satisfactory completion of finance documents. Any finance terms advertised are estimates only. LeafGuard does not assist with, counsel or negotiate financing, other than providing customers an introduction to lenders interested in financing its customers. Expires 8/31/2021

Receive a $25 Amazon gift card with FREE in-home estimate

All participants who attend an estimated 60-90 minute in-home product consultation will receive a $25 gift card. Retail value is $25. Offer sponsored by LeafGuard Holdings Inc. Limit one per household. Company procurement rules may preclude seamless gutter protection. This offer is valid for homeowners over 18 years of age. If married or involved with a life partner, both cohabitating persons must attend and complete presentation together. Participants must have a photo ID, be able to understand English, and be legally able to enter into a contract. The following persons are not eligible for this offer: employees of Company or affiliated companies or entities, their immediate family members, previous participants in a Company in-home consultation within the past 12 months and all current and former Company customers. Gift may not be extended, transferred, or substituted except that Company may substitute a gift of equal or greater value if it deems it necessary. Gift card will be mailed to the participant via first class United States Mail or e-mailed within 30 days of receipt of the promotion form. Not valid in conjunction with any other promotion or discount of any kind. Offer not sponsored or promoted by Amazon and is subject to change without notice prior to reservation. Expires 8/31/2021
