Letter from a Pastor to his People

Dear Parishioners,

When I was named pastor of Saint Juliana six years ago, my first time being pastor, I felt a lot of pressure. It was all self-imposed. I was 29-years old, it was a big responsibility, and I was afraid of failure. I didn't want to disappoint or hurt the people I was serving, and likewise the Cardinal who appointed me. I found myself like the dishonest steward from our Lord's parable today, who says to himself, "What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me? I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg" (Luke 16:3). If I fail at pastor, I thought to myself, what will I do with the rest of my life? Ah, yes, my ego was causing me much heaviness in those days.

Now, I'm not saying I "succeeded" at Saint Juliana. I don't even know if there's such a thing as "success or failure" as a pastor. And, if there is, I very well could have failed (I'm sure there are people who would nod in agreement that I did!). And I could very well be failing right now as pastor of Saint Paul of the Cross!

But say there is the possibility of "failure." And say I did fail then. And say I'm failing now. What does that leave me?

Even if you fail, James, you'll never lose me.

I remember clearly having that message from God in prayer. Yes, even if I mess up and blow this, and have everything taken away from me, God will still and always be with me, wherever I am and in whatever position I hold. And God is ultimately my greatest desire, not having some position or whatever. So, there is nothing to fear.

That insight removed the pressure from me. It gave me freedom to focus on loving God and serving his people, and not worrying about my own status or position. The dishonest steward would have been better off if he clung not to his position of power but to God; if he acted not out of fear, but out of freedom.

If you similarly have fear or pressure or heaviness around something, particularly in a role or position you have (e.g., being a parent, a leader in work, a volunteer), know that God is all you need and you can never lose him. And if you and I are reduced to 'begging and digging' because we fail, not only will God be there with us, he'll be with us in an even more intimate way!

This weekend is the Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll drive. Thank you for supporting our Knights as they help out local charities. Our KofC Council is a great group of men that do much for our community. One of their biggest efforts is to support our seminarians. Every year the Knights cut a $500 check to each of our seminarians, which goes a long way, as our seminarians are poor college kids, essentially. Men of the parish, if you'd like to get more involved with your faith and have also some service component, consider joining our Knights. Thank you to Robbie Gawronski, our Grand Knight, for his leadership.

Also, another reminder for the That Man is You (TMIY) men's spiritual group which meets currently on Monday evenings, another great group of guys and another way to share and support each other. You can be part of all three: Knights, TMIY, and our parish Men's Group.

And for women there is the Wednesday evening Walking with Purpose group, another amazing group of women who likewise reflect on Scripture and share and support one another.

For now we are going to stick with the weekend Mass schedule as we've been having: Saturday 4:30pm UC, Sunday 7:30am UC, 9am UC, 10:30am UC, and Noon HFC. We'll continue to evaluate if we need to add more Masses, but right now we seem to be doing fine.

Also for now we're going to hold off on resuming the Monday Evenings of Prayer. I'm praying about what other spiritual activity to perhaps add or how to tweak this. I still encourage you all, especially those who enjoyed praying Monday evenings, to visit our Perpetual Adoration Chapel and even sign up for a committed adorer time slot.

Your servant in Christ,

Reflections from our Seminararians and Staff

The start of our semester at Mundelein has been highlighted by three talks from priests as well as a retreat and conference that I think can all be traced back to this weekend's Mass readings. It has been a privilege to be here and listen to both Fr. John and Fr. Maina talk with us about developing a mature spirit of the heart. This is God's call for all of us: that we work towards giving Him our heart so He can draw us closer to Him. By doing that, we come to know ourselves more deeply as beloved sons and daughters of Christ, we see God as our Father, and then we can offer ourselves as a self-gift back to the Lord. I think St. Paul gives us a roadmap of how to do that when he mentions in today's reading that "...we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity." I fall short of that goal plenty of times, but when I make an effort to carve out contemplative prayer time each day, I am quickly reminded of the peace that Christ offers us.

We also hear today about serving God and mammon. Fr. Guthrie spoke with us about the richness of the word "liturgy" in the Catholic tradition. It is much more than just going to Mass on Sunday; it helps us see beyond mammon (like possessions, daily tasks, etc.) and helps us serve God! Do we take the time to ponder how when we consume the Eucharist, which is the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus (the Son of God!), it makes our heart more like God's heart, and how it calls us into constant relationship with him during each moment of each day of the week, outside of the Mass? The Eucharist is dynamic, as Fr. Guthrie said, helping make our whole life revolve around the Lord. When we serve the Lord through prayer by listening to Him and telling Him our thoughts, feelings, and desires, we strengthen the relationship of our heart and truly live the Eucharist in our daily lives.

Lee Noel, Second Year Seminarian

Hallelujah!

*Praise God in his holy sanctuary...
Give praise with blasts upon the horn,
praise Him with the harp and lyre.
Give praise with tambourines and dance,
praise Him with strings and pipes.
Give praise with crashing cymbals,
praise Him with sounding cymbals.
Let everything that has breath give
Praise to the Lord... ~Psalm 150*

Psalm 150 is a musician's favorite. It emphatically describes the power and magnitude of God and calls us to worship Him through music. Notice not only the specific mention of instruments, but the energy implied through repetition. At the lips of the most convincing reader, this psalm of King David will not be nearly as effective in speech as it is expressed through song. Music is capable of expressing the deepest of human emotions in a way that mere words cannot. In Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship (2007), the bishops say "Music is... a sign of God's love for us and of our love for Him."

As we begin anew in the work and academic year ahead, we assess our routines and create new ones. It is a time to discern how we can use our gifts and talents within our parish community.

My own initiation into parish music ministry began when I was 14. I grew up in a military family, who moved every several years. I did not experience the physical "roots" of growing up in one place, yet I found roots in my small music communities — as an accompanist for my high school choir and as a pianist in my parish, a small Catholic chapel on the Air Force base in Spangdahlem, Germany. Involvement in music grounded me when I felt socially displaced and instantly gave me a place to belong.

At today's 10:30 Mass, we celebrate our first All-Parish Choir event — a risk and commitment-free invitation to try our Adult Choir. If you missed it, it's not too late to come and give it a try! There are many ways we can include you here: Adult Choir, Contemporary Choir, Children's Choir, instrumentalists (providing special music or accompanying the hymns/songs of worship). Singers, please contact our Director of Music, Ed Eicker: edwardeicker@spc-church.org. Instrumentalists, please contact me: andrea bartolomeo@spc-church.org. We look forward to meeting you and finding a music ensemble where you can belong and lift your voice — or instrument — in song.

In God's peace,

Andrea Bartolomeo, Assistant Director of Music/Organist

Priesthood Sunday — October 2nd

WHAT IS PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY?

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. This nationwide event is coordinated and sponsored by the US Council of Serra International. The men who answer the call to priesthood are special indeed, and they are working harder than ever before.

Let us take a moment to thank our clergy who follow in Christ's footsteps. Pray. Say a decade of the rosary for a particular priest or the priesthood as a whole. Drop a note of thanks at the rectory. Find your own meaningful way to encourage these men for their commitment to bringing Jesus to us in so many ways, including the very Eucharist itself.

Join us in the gym after all Sunday Masses on October 2nd for a donut and to extend your gratitude to our priests!

"The power of the priest, is the power of the divine person; for the transubstantiation of the bread requires as much power as the creation of the world."

September 18, 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The seminarians preparing to be the future priests who will serve our parishes are a great blessing to us. They have stepped forward to give their lives to minister to the children and grandchildren of this present era. Today, more than ever, we need compassionate and knowledgeable priests who will walk with us through life, sharing in our joys and sorrows and guiding us through life's challenges.

This is why we need to invest in their training at both the University of Saint Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary and at Saint John Vianney College Seminary in Saint Paul, Minnesota. At Masses throughout the archdiocese this weekend, as we ask for your encouragement and prayers for our seminarians, we also ask you to invest in their formation. Your financial support will help to cover the educational and formational costs of their preparation, including tuition and fees, room and board and health insurance.

These young men are giving their lives for us, and I ask you to match their generosity by making a sacrificial gift as we take up this collection. You will be investing in them, but also in the future of our Church.

A remittance envelope has been placed in your pew or at the back of the church for your gift. You may also send your donation to your parish, noting that it is for "Seminarian Education," or make a gift online at archchicago.org/seminarianfund.

An additional way to support vocations in the archdiocese is by encouraging young men to consider discerning the priesthood. Many current priests credit their vocation to personal invitations and conversations with loved ones and friends who recognized the potential in them.

On behalf of current and future archdiocesan seminarians, thank you. May God continue to bless you abundantly. Please know that I keep you in my daily prayers and intentions, and I ask for yours in return.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Blase Cupic, Cardinal
Archbishop of Chicago

You may online at www.givecentral.org/location/133/event/3665 or send a check to our rectory with a note in the memo line stating "Seminarian Education." Thank you!

Fr. James Wallace, Pastor
Adrienne Timm, Director of Social Service Ministry
Erika Mickelburgh, Principal

Dear Fr. James, Adrienne, Erika, and St. Paul of the Cross Parish and School Community,

Thank you! We are so grateful for your incredible generosity and friendship. It was a joy for me to visit St. Paul of the Cross in March and speak after Masses. I am still struck by the hospitality, warmth, and kindness that are clearly hallmarks of your entire community.

As you know, the renovations that you are helping to fund will provide more space at our Catholic camps. Every summer, we have waiting lists for each of our six camps of up to 15 children. Imagine our joy at being able to say yes to them all!

I want you to know that these camps are very close to the heart and mission of our diocese. Legendary Lodge is a place where lifelong faith is nurtured and flourishes as campers come from all over to attend. Many of our priests, most of our seminarians, and countless committed Catholics credit camp as central to their love of Christ. It is truly a crossroads of encounter for our diocesan faith community with Jesus at the center.

In your generous support of Legendary Lodge, you have placed yourselves at the center of our diocesan faith community and helped meet a need that will benefit our children for generations to come. You have touched our hearts and you will most certainly remain in our prayers.

In Joyful Gratitude,

Dan Bartleson
Director, Legendary Lodge

September 6, 2022

Dear Fr. James,

On behalf of my religious community, I wanted to express my sincere gratitude for your warm welcome and reaching the heart of your parishioners at St. Paul of the Cross through Facebook page, bulletin, and announcements for the success of the MCP appeal. I really appreciated how you made your parishioners aware of this charitable event, Mission Cooperative Plan, organized by the Archdiocese of Chicago to help shine a light on the work of the missions around the world.

I really thank you, for without hesitation you let me come and share our mission and Charism of the Sisters Servants of the Visitation in your congregation. You really emphasized how we, as the Church of Jesus Christ, are together in serving the poor near and far. I was filled with joy at seeing your parishioners attentively listening and touched by their charitable action in supporting Ain Karim and our children with their heartfelt donation. I am very thankful for the generosity of your parishioners for giving me their attention to my mission talk. I would like to reach out to each one of them to give my sincere thanks for their good and generous hearts in sharing their blessing to our littles ones. God will bless them more for their generous action of love. I return to the Philippines with such a happy memory of visiting St. Paul of the Cross parish.

I thank Fr. Nick for his deep reflection and connecting my mission appeal to the Gospel, as disciples of Jesus... leaving everything to follow Jesus. Thank you also to Seminarians Martin and Lee for your prayers for my mission here, our children, and ministry. I will pray for your perseverance in following Jesus in the Priestly ministry.

May the grace of the Lord be with you all and our Mother of the Visitation will continue always to bring Jesus in your hearts!

With deepest gratitude, and warmest wishes,

Yours in Christ,

Sr. Rubi E. Arellano. SSV
Local Superior of the Sisters Servants of the Visitation, Philippines

MUSIC MINISTRY

"My church it has a tower, a beacon of light in my darkest hour. That's where I found my faith, found how to use it, inspired by such beautiful music." I was inspired to write these words for a song I wrote after recording a farewell cassette for Father Joe back in 1996. Our parish is truly blessed to have such talented singers and musicians who provide music for our services. As the summer end and the choir and other groups come back, let's look at some of those who have been a part of our Music Ministry over the years.

Adult Choir, 1978

Harriet Kondzioka, the first HFC Musical Director, and her fellow musicians

Folk groups also performed in the Holy Family Chapel

The Contemporary Group started in the mid 90s under Father Kinane's tenure. Associate Pastors Father Carl and Father Ken were part of the band.

The Contemporary Group still plays every other Sunday during fall, winter, and spring at the 9:00 am UC Mass

Holy Family Chapel Band 2

Keith Banaszak and the Holy Family Chapel Band came during Father Britto's tenure
